Tell us about your interest in Waldorf Education:

Tell us about your child:

Approximately how many hours a week is media a part of child's life?
Television _____ Videos _____ Computer_____ Electronic Games (phone, video) _____
We have found that children with less media exposure are more receptive to our curriculum, but understand that media is a major part of modern society. This information simply contributes to our understanding of the home life and helps us work together to best serve your child.

Please note any academic challenges or developmental conditions for which student has received special attention:
This enables OWS to determine whether it can appropriately serve your child's needs with or without reasonable accommodations.

Please read the following carefully:

Student Enrollment

Acceptance into Olympia Waldorf School is conditional upon an interview between the faculty and the family. Once it is mutually agreed that Olympia Waldorf School is a good fit for the child, enrollment is secured by signing the tuition contract, paying the Enrollment Fee of $200 (plus $100 per additional siblings), and a Capital Projects fee of $700 per family. Tuition and the Class Supply Fees are billed through FACTS tuition billing based on the timing of enrollment and on the payment plan chosen after enrollment is secured. All fees are non-refundable.

30-Day Probationary Period

Every new student will undergo a one-month period of evaluation. During this time, the student's parents/guardians will have the opportunity to become familiar with the school, and the teacher will be able to observe the student's needs and abilities. At the end of the one-month observation period, the teacher may terminate the enrollment contract, or the student may be transferred to a more appropriate class. If the contract is terminated, tuition will be charged on a prorated basis.

Parent Volunteerism

Enrolling your child in a Waldorf school requires parent involvement. Private education cannot exist by virtue of tuition alone; both private and public schools owe much to their large pool of parent volunteers. The parents of the Olympia Waldorf School provide consistent service to the school by helping with school fundraisers, participating in committees, assisting in the maintenance of the school grounds and buildings, supporting the festivals and attending regular classroom parent evenings throughout the school year.

Signatures

I/we acknowledge and affirm that I am the parent/legal guardian(s) of the above referenced child and that I am authorized to make any and all educational decisions for this child. I/We have read the above information and accept the terms regarding enrollment, fees and parental involvement in the Olympia Waldorf School. Both parents/legal guardians are required to sign. If you have sole responsibility for educational decisions, only your signature is required.
